Dear Cambodian Youth,

Happy Khmer New Year! We are proud to present the fifth issue of our fortnightly newsletter for 2014.

The aim of KYA News is to connect with you as our members and update you on any KYA news, activities, information, events and opportunities for young people.

THANK YOU for supporting KYA!

Best wishes and happy reading ☺

KYA reminds you... This Khmer New Year, do not drink and drive. You not only put your life in danger, but also everyone else's. Designate a sober driver at the beginning of the evening or call a taxi. And if you see a drunk person about to drive, speak up.

YOUNG WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP: A Case Study

Sreymich Chhat is a KYA volunteer from Ratanakiri and consistently involves herself in community work as well as shares her experiences with others. Sreymich is currently a second year law student at Pannasastra University of Cambodia. She's forged a path of empowerment, and is excited to inspire other females to do the same. KYA's Young Journalist Training

KYA will offer a free journalism class about USTREAM to CYN and KYA members. Phnom Penh KYA Office. April 6 8-11:15am. Please register with migy.no@kya-cambodia.org

Multiple Job Openings at KYA

KYA is seeking a health project coordinator, sexual and reproductive health field staff, a monitoring and evaluation officer, and a Kampong Cham provincial coordinator. Deadline April 18, 2014.

Next time: Our next newsletter will feature tips for job interviews, another female empowerment case study, and a feature article about sexual and reproductive health!

Research Skills for Success

Research is a highly important soft skill that leads to acquiring other skills as well; however, many Cambodian high schools and universities do not have modern research facilities and do not encourage or require research. Learning research skills now can help foster success later. Click here to read the full article by KYA News reader Jame Tinat.

EVENTS

E.U. on a Bicycle: Green is Beautiful

KYA, in partnership with the European Union, will host a bicycle tour in Phnom Penh on May 4, 2014 from 7-10am. KYA hosted the same tour last year with over 600 participants, and we are excited to have even more this year! The tour will promote environmental awareness among participants. Anyone is welcome to join. For more information and to sign up, click here.
